

GFWC FLORIDA VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

AWARD NOMINATION

2016-2018

The GFWC Florida volunteer of the Year Award is annually given to one Woman's Club or Junior Woman's Club member who best exemplifies outstanding service through volunteerism. This award includes only service rendered through GFWC Florida club work. The recipient of this award is a member who has given unselfishly of her time and energy for worthwhile causes through GFWC Florida club work. Volunteer work must have been performed during the current calendar year (January 1 – December 31).

Each Woman's and Junior club may nominate one member for this award. The nominations must be sent to the District Membership Chairman, postmarked no later than February 1. A district nominee will be selected in each of the 14 district by a committee of four; the District Membership chairman, the District Director, the District Leadership chairman and the Junior District Director. In districts where there is no Junior District Director, the GFWC Florida Director of Junior Clubs will participate in the selection process. In the event any of these committee members is a nominee, the District Membership Chairman will select an alternate committee member(s) to serve (other women's or junior chairman). The District Membership Chairman will be responsible for overseeing the selection and will forward the application of her district's nominee to the GFWC Florida 2nd Vice President, postmarked no later than February 15. Each of the 14 nominees will be recognized at a state meeting to be determined.

CRITERIA: Include this page and attach a 2-page narrative/resume, typed or computer generated, double spaced with a minimum size 12 font. Explain why this member is being nominated; why she is deserving of this recognition. Her narrative/resume must include only her achievements and involvement in GFWC Florida Club work. Only volunteer efforts for the immediate calendar year (January 1 – December 21) may be included.
