

Volunteerism is the voice of the people put into action. These actions shape and mold the present into a future of which we can all be proud. Helen Dyer

Reporting is coming quickly! I want to be wowed! Give me something to read and be excited about reading and want to hear more. I want to see the Who, What, Where, When and Why. I have been Public Issues Chairman for the 2014-2016 administration and have read it all. Insert facts, include fascinating details.

When, it's nice to know not just the date, but time of day. Was it an afternoon event, evening event?

Where, may be familiar to the person writing but it may not be to the reader.

Who, Who is the speaker, use the appropriate epithet.

What of course, is the event, monthly meeting, tour of an exhibit, etc.

Why, should give the reader an idea of why the event is worth attending.

A good writer is like an artist she paints a picture in the readers mind.

Note: this is confusing on Guardian Ad Litem is under Public Issues because it involves the court system. Other activities with foster care children would be reported under Home Life.

Sew Much Comfort provides adaptive clothing to support the unique needs of our wounded service personnel members, including all branches of the military and national guard. Many injuries require large fixators, prosthetics, or casts that are too bulky to fit under ordinary clothing. Without our adaptive clothing, wounded service members are limited to wearing hospital gowns during their recovery. Sew Much Comfort adaptive clothing allows them to wear normal looking clothing which enhances their comfort and dignity during their recovery process. Refer to specifics going to the Sew Much Comfort website; www.SewMuchComfort.org
